

We have appointed on the part of the House Messrs. Kilbourn, Hammond and Carroll.

By order,

MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day, being the Joint Resolution in reference to the claim of the State against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad,

Mr. Marbury, (the rules being suspended,) submitted the following order :

Ordered, That the order making the Resolutions offered by the Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, directing the Attorney General to institute proceedings in the name of the State against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, be postponed in view of the fact that voluminous documents have been presented by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and the opinion of the Attorney General for the consideration of this House, and that the same be made the order of the day for Wednesday next, at 1 o'clock, February 2d.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Kilbourn (the rules being suspended) submitted the following order :

Ordered, That no bill shall be put on its second reading until the same shall have been printed and furnished to this House.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Kilbourn (the rules being suspended) presented the petition of William Harwood for relief as therein stated.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

On motion of Mr. Sanner,

At one o'clock and fifteen minutes P. M., the House adjourned until to-morrow morning, at eleven o'clock.
